Traditional Irish Melody; Poetry by William Butler Yeats

It was down by the Sall--ey---- Gard--ens
In a field down by the----- riv----- } my love and I did-----
It was down by the ---- Sall--ey----- Gard--ens }

meet. She-- crossed the Sall--ey---- Gard--ens with-- snow--- white----- feet. She stand. And up--on my---- lean----ing shoulder, She laid her----- snow white hand. She meet. She-- crossed the Sall--ey--- Gard--ens with-- snow--- white----- feet. She bid me to take life easy as the { leave---s grow on the trees-----, grass--- grow on the weirs----- } but I leave---s grow on the trees-----, was----- young and fool-ish, { and with her I did not a-gree.

and now I am full- of tears.
and with her I did not a-gree.
